The business of the Harford Community College Board of Trustees, as empowered by Maryland law, is to oversee all personnel, programs, and facilities. The Board employs its president to implement and to interpret its policies. The Board directs the president to establish guidelines, procedures, and practices that flow from and support the policies of the Board of Trustees as contained in the Board Manual for By-laws and Policies. The Board meets the second Tuesday each month (except July) to consider or transact public business.
